10. Meanwhile, as investigators were conducting the search, GOODE Jr, who waived Miranda was interviewed by TFO Jeremy Ice and Special Agent Bill Meholf. GOODE Jr was asked about the ownership of the firearms found at the Bellevue address. GOODE Jr acknowledged the presence of the weapons stating that the guns were not his, but that he was holding them for a friend of his. Later, TFO Ice, along with TFO Daley, asked GOODE Jr about the firearms located at the Lovers Lane address, GOODE Jr stated that he is a collector of firearms and that he uses the guns for protection due to his father being severely assaulted in a home invasion/robbery at the Lovers Lane address. GOODE Jr also made statements referring to that he has an Ohio Carry Concealed Weapons License (CCW) and that Ohio is an open carry state. However, he continued to state that he does not drive around carrying them because he might get in trouble. GOODE Jr did not provide any knowledge about the drugs found at either residence when interviewed. Shortly, thereafter, GOODE Jr was arrested and transported to the Summit County Jail.
